

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

§ 1

The name of the Company is Russian Real Estate Investment Company AB (publ). The Company is a public company (publ).

§ 2

The objects of the Company are, directly or indirectly through wholly or partly-owned companies, to acquire, manage, develop and sell real property and securities as well as to pursue activities compatible therewith.

§ 3

The share capital of the Company shall be not less than SEK 13,000,000 and not more than SEK 52,000,000.

§ 4

The number of shares shall not be less than 6,500,000 and not more than 26,000,000.

The Company's shares may be issued in two classes, class A and class B. Each class A share shall entitle the holder to 10 votes and each class B share shall entitle the holder to one vote.

No more than 26,000,000 class A shares and no more than 26,000,000 class B may be issued.

In the event the Company resolves to issue new class A and class B shares through a cash issue or a set-off issue, owners of class A and class B shares shall have pre-emption rights to subscribe for new shares of the same class in proportion to the number of shares previously held (primary pre-emption rights). Any shares that have not been subscribed for pursuant to primary pre-emption rights shall be offered to all shareholders for subscription (secondary pre-emption rights). In the event the number of shares thus offered is insufficient for shareholders wishing to subscribe pursuant to secondary pre-emption rights, the shares shall be allotted amongst the subscribers in proportion to the number of shares each previously held and, to the extent such cannot be accomplished, through the drawing of lots.

In the event the Company resolves to issue new shares, through a cash issue or a set-off issue, of only class A or class B, all shareholders, irrespective of whether their shares are class A or class B, shall hold pre-emption rights to subscribe for new shares in proportion to the number of shares previously held.

In the event the Company resolves to issue subscription options or convertible debt instruments, through a cash issue or a set-off issue, shareholders have pre-emption rights to subscribe for subscription options as if the issue concerned the shares which may be newly subscribed for on account of option rights and pre-emption rights respectively and to subscribe for convertible debt instruments as if the issue concerned the shares that the convertible debt instruments may be exchanged for.

In the event of an increase in the share capital through a bonus issue, new shares shall be issued of each class in proportion to the number of outstanding shares of the same class. In conjunction therewith, old shares of a particular class shall entitle the holder to new shares of the same class.

Class A shares shall, at the request of the holder, be converted to class B shares in the manner described below. Following a written request to the board of directors by the holder of class A shares to convert such shares into a class B shares in accordance with the provision described above, specifying the number of shares to be converted and, if the conversion does not relate to the total number of class A shares held by the person concerned, which of those shall be converted, the board of directors shall approve the request for conversion and cause such to be registered.

Class B shares may, following a unanimous resolution adopted at a general meeting of shareholders by owners of all of the shares in the Company, be converted to class A shares.

Conversion in accordance with the preceding two paragraphs is deemed to be completed when registration has been carried out in the register of companies and the conversion has been recorded in the share register or record day register.
